

Sanitarium, Calif. Sept. 17, 1915.

Dear Brother Edson:-

This morning I received your letter of Sept. 13, and I hasten to reply. I returned last night from a three days stay in S. F. Bro.] Sr. Bree sailed Wednesday for New Zealand, and I spent two days in helping them prepare for sailing, and seeing them off. I also met 14 who sailed on the Persia, for India, China, and Java. They were a fine lot of educated, consecrated young people. Yesterday I spent in the Exposition. It is fine.

With this I am sending to you Express receipt for a roll of bedding which we got off to you two days ago. It contains the best feather bed, and the eider down quilt. We are still waiting for the appraisers to complete their work. When they are done and we know where we are at, I shall write to you more fully.

I am glad you are of good courage about the slide business. You will have stiff work to keep up with your orders, and do good work.

We are indeed very sorry that Emma suffers so much. Hope the Fall weather will be better.

Yours truly,

W. C. White
