

EGW FAVORITE HYMNS

"There is Sunlight on the Hilltop"
 "Nearer My God to Thee"
 "Rock of Ages"
 --List furnished by E. M. Robinson 1943.

"Songs which she [EGW] was very fond of:"
 "Jesus Lover of My Soul"
 "Resting By and By"
 "We Have Heard of a Bright and Better Land" by Wm Hyde
 "In her room we sometimes heard her humming to herself
 "Pilot's wife's Dream,' 'It was not sleep that dimmed
 my sight.'"--List from WCW-1937
 "Hold the Fort"--ST Oct 26, 1882

"She was bright and cheerful, often singing, "We Are Homeward Bound,"
 ... "We Are Children of a King, Heavenly King," "When the Mises
 Have Rolled in Splendor From the Beauty of the Hills"
 Letter, J. Pocock to Brother Piper
 July 31, 1932
 DF 966, Remembrances

Further listing by Ella Robinson
 Let Us Gather Up the Sunbeams
 O Worship the Lord in the Beauty of Holiness
 Holy, Holy Holy, Lord God Almighty.
 All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name.
 Just As I am Without One Plea
 I Will Follow Thee, My Saviour.
 Is My Name written There?
 I'm a Pilgrim and I'm a Stranger.
 I Saw One Weary, Worn and Sad