Dear Alta,

So nice to see you recently, even though the visit was brief.

Thank you for taking the time to write out your comments about Mr. Slattery's false statements. I have re-typed your original comments, putting them in a form that we could share as needed when questions arise about the story.

Could you make certain that what I have typed accurately represents your statement and, if so, sign one of the sheets for our files here in the office? You may keep the other copy. I look forward to anything that Jennifer might want to add, too!

Take care...and God bless.
